Indivisible Midlands Endorses Sam Edwards For SC State House District 85

For Immediate Release

Columbia, South Carolina, 16 May 2018 — Progress South Carolina’s 2017 Progressive Activist Group of the Year, Indivisible Midlands is proud to announce today their endorsement of fellow activist Sam Edwards for SC House District 85.

“Indivisible Midlands is honored and proud to endorse Sam Edwards for State Representative, House District 85,” said Kim Baker, a co-chair of the group. “Sam was one of our group’s founders as well as a fellow co-chair, until she decided to run for office in her home district. Over the past year, we have gotten to know Sam very well. We are confident she will serve with much needed honesty and integrity. Sam has worked tirelessly alongside multiple Midlands communities to further progressive causes. She has fought to empower all South Carolinians. She will help ensure our State Legislature becomes a place of transformative - rather than transactional - representation. Our members enthusiastically back Sam’s bid to join the SC General Assembly.”

Indivisible Midlands is a non-partisan, grassroots organization committed to promoting civic participation in the fight for justice, sustainability, and equality by focusing on citizen engagement with our elected representatives at the local, state, and national level in and around South Carolina’s 2nd Congressional District.
